

STITCHING THROUGH TIME: AN OLD-FASHIONED QUILT EXHIBIT

November 5–January 17

Spring Historical Museum 403 Main St.
Spring, Texas 77373

Experience the artistry, heritage, and personal stories stitched into quilts from generations past.

Stitching Through Time: An Old-Fashioned Quilt Exhibit celebrates handmade quilts as works of beauty, patience, and storytelling.

Visitors will discover vintage quilts, traditional patterns, and the craftsmanship behind these treasured textile works.

Exhibit highlights include a Bicentennial quilt, a collection of crazy quilts, fabric creations from North Harris County quilters, and other quilted objects that reflect the craft's enduring place in local history.

Admission: Free admission; donations gladly accepted Hours: Thursday–Saturday, 10:00 AM–5:00 PM; Sunday, 1:00–4:00 PM
Information: www.springhistoricalmuseum.org | 281-651-0055

Plan your visit this fall and explore this engaging exhibit!